On 30th.Sept 2023, Meeting children with parents at Kiaupong village, talking about children education and their need, praying for their children future. We had a good discussion.

Kaw Thoo Lei (The karen state in Myamar)

Between 21 – 26 August 2023, Mu Aye Pu School Director and one teacher visited Musekee, to prepare for the Mu Aye Pu Students to come as an excursion in November 2023, on the same day, Dr. Ya ha from Myamar visited our foundation.

On 30st August 2023, Visited Mr. Big family and the children who lived with them for Educaain, Discussing the need of the border children who may not have a chance of study at proper school. Mr. Big and his wife are ready and committed their lives to care and help the needy, orphan children to get education. We are praying and planning to help find support for them to care more children in the future. And we also visited the school where all the unfortunate children are accepted.

Our 15 children from the border are improving in their talking but still very challenging to care for them. They enjoyed but our staffs need to be very patience and perseverance to care for them.

We are still waiting God's answer to repair the leaking roof at Mu Aye Pu, as it is so much needed because of the rain.

Many villagers and soldiers have been losing their lives in the war and the Burmese soldiers continue to frightening people by air craft because they knew that they can not fight on land. So more and more injured soldiers and the village people are coming into the border to seek for medical care. Your prayer and support are always welcome and needed .

Please continue to keep in your prayer that the IDP children will have a chance to study in Thai school and get education.

Former Student :
