I would like to thank all of you once again for your prayer and continuous support that we are able to continue God's work for His people –caring and comforting them when they are in need. What you have done for the least of the people, God is pleased and will reward you in heaven.

It is very lonely without visitors, but God is our visitors. He continue to visit and stay with us, never leave us. We are so thankful to our Living God for showing His faithfulness to us that we can continue to do what He call us for. With God we can handle whatever this day brings.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us. Ephesus 3:20.
